TO DARKEN HAIRIT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandry goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

Argentine Peach Trees.

There are five varieties of peach trees in Argentina; the juicy early American downy-skinned peach, the clingstone downy peach, the slipstone nonadherent peach, and two nectaries. The peach thrives over a vast zone, extending as far north as the subtropical regions. It is to be found in the southern Andean, Pampean and Maritime regions, but peach groves occur in largest number along the extensive stretch of territory lying between Buenos Aires and Mendoza.

Caution.

Be slow of tongue and quick of eye.—Cervantes.

Quite.

"Was your husband cool when you told him there was a burglar in the house?" asked Mrs. Hammer. "Cool," replied Mrs. Gabby. "I should say he was cool. Why his teeth chattered." —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Drug on the Market.

Generally speaking, he who would be a popular entertainer should cut out lectures. Women do not care for them, and married men get more than they need right at home.—Chicago News.

Only Poisonous Bird.

There is only one species of bird known whose bite is poisonous, the Ririr N'Doob or "bird of death" of New Guinea. Loss of sight, convulsions and lockjaw are symptoms which follow rapidly after the bite.

Explanation Enough.

Passenger—"That last station was my destination, sah. Why, sah, didn't you stop that?" Conductor—"We don't stop there any more. The Santa Anna is mad at the station agent." —Sacred Heart Review.

Where the Leak Is.

"If I had a wife who would do some sewing for me I wouldn't lose so much money out of the holes in my pockets," growled Mr. Gabby. "The only hole in a man's pocket that he loses money out of is the hole at the top," replied Mr. Gabby.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Convenient.

Estate Agent (exhibiting property to prospective tenants)—And then this house is so conveniently located. Not the slightest need of equipping it with expensive cloaks to tell the time—the train passes every five minutes on the railroad not 20 feet away.

BAD TAKE SALTS
IF KIDNEYS ACT

SAYS BACKACHE IS SIGN YOU HAVE BEEN EATING TOO MUCH MEAT.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's unnecessary waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach aches, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water seads and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Job's tears; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then set free. This famous salts is made from the seed of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Bad Salts is life saver for really meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. (Adv. No. 23)

ARMORED Vessel of 1520.

Armed vessels of war had an earlier origin than is generally supposed. The Knights of St. John of Jerusalem built in 1539 a war galley, the Santa Anna, which was protected with a curtain of lead, to its great advantage in sea fights. The Santa Anna had another modern feature, a contemporary chronicler narrates with pleased astonishment that the vessel carried a bakery, which permitted the crew to enjoy the luxury of fresh bread.

WHY?

Well, why does a cimicemaker's child never have shorts? Why does the average architect live in an ugly and poorly planned house? Why does the modish dressmaker usually look dowdy? Why is the teetotaler on the "Tastes of a Mother" always a spinster?

APPEARANCE IS NOT ALL.

A gentle spirit may express itself in rude words of illiteracy, it is not therefore rude Raffianism may speak the language of learning or religion, it is ruffianism still. Strength may wear the mark of weakness, and still be strong; and a weakling may carry the weapons of strength, but fight with a faint heart.—Barroll Bell Wright.

A Portrait.

When he can't get front seats at the theater he grows about the box office discrimination, when he can't decide not to take them after all—for the show can't be a good one, or they would have been gone long ago. We all know the complete pessimist.

He is almost as depressing as the professional optimist.—Collier's Weekly.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Books are not made for furniture, but there is nothing else that so beautifies a house... Give us a house furnished with books rather than furniture.—Henry Ward Beecher.

REASON IN ALL THINGS.

Shallow men believe in luck, believe in circumstances. Strong men believe in cause and effect.—Emerson.

MR. SHIPPER--

Chili Poor Country for Stock.

Stock raising in Chili does not seem to be keeping pace with the general development of the country, owing to the fact that better use can be made of the land, since beef cattle can be brought from Argentina cheaply. Then the ravages of tuberculosis, carbuncles, fever, etc., and the large number of deaths during droughts in unirrigated sections of the country tend to make the business unprofitable.

Relic of Great Russian Ruler.

At Christie's, London, a Jacobean oak chair, according to a description, was made from the timber of a wreck.

and the craftsman is said to have been Peter the Great, while he was a tenant of John Evelyn at Sayes Court, Deptford.

Look for the Beautiful.

Never lose an opportunity of seeing anything beautiful. Welcome it in every fair face, every fair sky, every fair flower, and thank him for it who is in the fountain of all loveliness and drink it simply and earnestly with all your eyes; it is a charmed draft, a cup of blessing.—Kingaley.

AVOID FRETTING.

The moment I fret about a thing I am its slave instead of its master.

And there is no slave/master in the world like worry. Another master may grudge the dinner hour, but he must give you time for sleep.

Another master may grudge the dinner hour, but some time you must eat.

But worry will work you twenty-four hours a day and spoil your appetite into the bargain.—Mark Guy Pearson.

ARTISTIC SPEAKING.

The Mexican word "humo" (meaning smoke) is pronounced "umber."

Therefore a sunburnt man is "burnt umber."

This complexion, combined with a sandy beard and a regular Mexican yellow streak ought to make an effective color scheme.

AFFLICTED BRITISHERS.

Few people realize that there are 34,000 persons blind blind in the United Kingdom, 150,000 whose vision is so defective that they cannot read and so fewer than 1,000,000 sightless human beings in the British Empire outside their islands.—London Mail.

COMPASSION.

The sin lessens in human estimation as the sense of guilt increases.—Schiller.
